

Argentine flowers

“Argentine flowers”, it is a song cycle by Carlos Guastavino for voice and piano.

Carlos Guastavino (1912 - 2000) was an Argentine nationalist composer of the 19th century. “Argentine flowers” is a song cycle based in folk rhythms that evoke flowers or trees. This “storytelling” program include images of each flower and comments about legends that are behind of them. “Argentine flowers” is a great concert for audiences interested either on music or Argentine traditional literature.

Duration: 50 minutes

