

“Once upon a time in Argentina”, it is a workshop available for libraries and schools grades 5-12.

Through different musical activities as singing and clapping, students are introduced to main elements of Argentine folk music. They will learn about main folk rhythms and musical instruments.

Through students participation and multimedia support, this workshop teaches about Argentine folk music while educating students about Argentine geography and culture.

Duration: 50 minutes

