

“Postcards from Catalonia”, it is a performance for voice and piano.

Catalonia is a culturally distinctive region of Spain with its own language, Catala which is a Spanish and French dialect blend. This blend is reflected in Catalonian composers. Most of them lived in Spain but studied in Paris been influenced by Debussy, Ravel and Poulenc. This concert is dedicated to three main Catalonian composers of the 20th century, Toldra, Mompou and Montsalvatge

Duration: 50 minutes

Postcards from Catalonia

